

Help shape the way fertility services are delivered

NHS organisations in the East Midlands are currently reviewing how people can access fertility treatments. The aim is to create a fairer approach to fertility treatment across the region.

This is your opportunity to share your thoughts and help shape the future of fertility services in the East Midlands to ensure that our population's needs are met.

Complete our Survey

Help us shape the future of fertility services by filling in our survey. Scan the code or visit this link:
