

Call ahead

If you think you or your child have measles, call your GP surgery or NHS 111 first, before turning up at a healthcare setting.

This will help to stop the virus spreading.

